Antonio Perfili was brought to Castle Garden about 3 p. m. yesterday, by Carmine Labati and Michele Detali, dangerously wounded in the head by a all from a revolver. He was taken into the hospital and his wounds were dressed by the resident physician, Dr. O. L. Dusseldorf, Labati said he would re and his wounds were dressed by the resident physician, Dr. O. L. Dusseldorf. Labati said he would remain with Perfill, but being asked by the injured man to bring a priest, he and his companion left Castle Garden. Before the two men had gone, the doctor asked them the cause of the shooting, and the wounded men, speaking for them, said, that being thred of life and having so many misfortunes, he had committed the deed himself. But after the two Italians had gone, the man being asked the second time, gave the following statement: While he was in his room on the second floor of No. 35 Mulberry-st., unpacking his trunk, be took out his revolver, which had been loaded for some years, and haid it on his bed. Labati and Detuil, both of whom were friends of long standing, were in the room. Labati, taking the revolver in his hand and pointing at Perfill, said he would end his existence, and fired. Perfill does not know why he did it, as they had been friends for two years. He thinks it must have been accidental. The ball entered about an inch below the temple bree and lodged on the upper border of the "malar bone" and being near the temporal artery, makes the wounded man's condition precarious. At 6 p. m. he was improving, hemorrhage having ceased.

Perfill is about twenty-five years old; he spoaks no English, although he has been four years in this country. He requested the doctor to send for his wife, who lives in New-Haven. About 4 o'clock Coroner Woltman took his statement, substantially as is given above. Later in the day Labati was arrested and locked up in the Fourteenth Precinct Station-house, and Detuil was taken to the House of Detention. No information as to whether or not there had been a quarrel could be ascertained.

AMERICAN COUNTERFEITERS IN GERMANY. ARREST OF TWO OF THE CRIMINALS IN MUNICH-REIMBURSING THE SWINDLED EMIGRANTS.

The arrest of two men, supposed to be members of the gang of counterfeiters implicated in passing spurious $50 Natioral bank notes on German emigrants to this port, has been effected. The men are Americans, and claim to belong in this city and Brooklyn. The arrest was made in Munich a week ago, and in their possession were found numerous counterfeit notes on New york banks, such as have been brought over by emigrants. The German Consul-General has been in communication with the German Government in relation to the arrest, and has received the counterfelt money and some of the court proceedings in the case. He has sixty-four counterfelt bills on the Breadway National Bank and forty-four of the same denomination on the National Bank and Proceedings in the case. He has sixty-four counterfelt bills on the Breadway National Bank and forty-four of the same denomination on the National Bank of New-York. The money has been submitted to experts and pronounced counterfeit beyond question. It is said that there are others suspected, and their arrest is expected, but until the arrest is made information in regard to the matter is withheld. The depositions of the men arrested have been taken in Manich and received here, in which they narrate circumstantially their course of travel since they left this city. Very little credit is attached, however, to these statements. It is asserted that Meyers, the banker, of Hamburg, from whom some of the bills were obtained by the passencers, offers to redeem all that he has paid out. The Commissioners of Emigration received yesterday a check from C. B. Riehards & Boas, in redemption of thirteen counterfelt National bank notes received by two passengers on the steamer Lessing, of their line. York banks, such as have been brought over by emi-

THE PHONOGRAPH MAKING MUSIC. The phonograph has done many wonderful things, but it surpassed even itself on Wednesday wight, at Irving Hall. Heretofore the sounds which it has, emitted have been smothered somewhat, and the tone has had a nasal twang. But within the past week Mr. Edison has supplied a new instrument, which reproduces words in almost the natural tone and pitch of the person speak-ing. This has been accomplished by causing the cylinder to revolve as rapidly when the phonograph is speak-ing as when the person talks into it. On Wednesday evening the instrument sang one or two seprane songs. evening the instrument sang one or two soprano songs, and gave forth in a capital manner, a cornet solo, blown into it by Mr. Levy. Madam Cole sang "Comin' Thro' the Rye," with all the trills and flourishes usually accompanying that air. The phonograph repeated the tone and the words almost perfectly. The key was the same. Some of the notes were remarkably sweet, and the trills were not missing; the tones were only slightly smothered. The phonograph thus becomes a musical instrument. The audience was delighted, and applauded londly. Mr. Levy next blew on his cornet "God Save the Queen," in four different octaves. This he cialms is an octave lower than any one has been able to play on that instrument. The phonograph faithfully repeated the anthem in each key. The pitch was remarkably sustained, and only a slight mesh twoing Mr. Levy's lungs, could not give forth the tune with as much force as he did. It had been intended that Mr. Levy should play the air in the lowest octave, while the phonograph was repeating it in the highest. This would have been a perfect test of the ability of instrument to sustain the key. But owing to the latchess of the hour this part of the programme was postponed.

Recitations in English, Prench and German, singluc, reports, and the presentation of tostimonials to those who had carned them by punctuality and general excellence, presentation of diplomas, an address of Mr. Gallagher, and benediction by Bischop Smith, of Tennesse, composed the exercises. The rooms were decorated with heavy festoons of leaves and contributions of flowers. The Rev. Mr. Courtiney, of St. Thomas's Church, the Rev. Messrs, Davenport and Hoffman, Dr. Faine, Mrs. Stephen V. AN ASYLUM FOR SAILORS' FAMILIES, The twenty-tifth anniversary of the Mariners' Family Asylum was celebrated yesterday at Clifton, Staten Island. This institution has been supported by Etaten Island. This institution has been supported by legacies, gifts, and by a portion of the "scaman's tax," which has, however, been cut off for the last three years. It is now feared, unless the public comes to the rescue, that the institution will have to suspend its work at the end of the present season. There are now about forty old women, wives, widows and sisters of satiors, resident in the building, varying in age from sixty to ninety years. One has reached the age of nihety-nine, and plays with cups and sancers and her dolls like a child. The ceremonies included addresses by Chartain Duncan, Dr. McFarland, Dr. Rockwell and Dr. Robinson. Several sailor songs were sums. The report of the secretary showed only five admissions during the past year, and five deaths. The report of the treasurer showed the expenses of the past year to have been $3,785.11, leaving on hand $2,533.83.

ESCAPE OF A NOTORIOUS CRIMINAL. RUFUS MINOR, THE ALLEGED ROBBER OF MR

YOUNG'S BONDS, MAKES HIS ESCAPE. Inspector McDermott, on duty at the Central Office Wednesday, was informed at 8:30 p. m. that Rufus Minor, the notorious thief, had escaped from an officer of the Court of General Sessions. At the Tombs, no one seemed to know any thing about the particulars of the escape. The officer who had charge of Minor is George Wilson, an old strendant of the Court of General Sessions. It seems that while passing along the street, Minor watched his charce to escape. With a sudden movement, he jumped from the officer's side, disappearing almost immediately from sight, and effectually cluding pursuit. The officer was completely overcome by the escape. When he reached the Tombs his eyes were filled with tears, and during the evening he was seen by his friends attempting to drown his mortification in drink, a habit not usual with him. Minor was arrested for the robbery of nearly $100,000 of securities from the office of J. H. Young, in Nassan-st., on January 2, 1877. Ills case was to have come up Wednesday in the Court of General Sessions, but was adjourned. The escape the not come to the knowledge of the police until over three hours after it happened. thing about the particulars of the escape.

Hovan. Minor is about forty-two years old, well-bunk five feet seven inches high, and of dark complexion. His father was a respectable Brooklyn merchant, who at his death left his son a small fortune, But young Minor was dissipated, and was fond of cambling. These habits brought him into the company of professional thieves; he soon ran through his fortune, and joined the gang. He was convicted once in Toronto, where he served a term of three years. Soon after the robbery Marr was arrested in a well-turnshed house in Seventieth-st., near Third-ave., but as he was not identified by either Mr. Young or his book-keeper, he was released. The Pulkertons next set a watch on the movements of Charlotte Dougherty, who was known to be the wife of Hovan. The detective followed her to Petersburg, and on the way she was loined by her husband. At Petersburg they took rooms at a hotel, and in a few days they were joined by Minor and Corseau. On March 23 the entire party was arrested. In a hernetically scaled tin box, found in Minor's possession, were all the stolen securities. Hovan was arrested ther, but being prostrated by consumption he was released in $3,000 bail. Robert Pinkerton said yesterday that Minor would soon be again arrested.

NEWARK'S STRANGE SUICIDE. THE CORONER'S INQUEST BEGUN-VAN HOUTEN'S CONNECTION WITH THE MASONS.

The suicide of James H. Van Houten, of No. 96 Bank-st., Newark, while attending a meeting of a committee of Psthagoras Lodge of Masons, which was investigating certain charges against him, on Tuesday night, is still a subject of general interest in Newark. It appears that his life was insured for $4,000, $2,000 of which was in the Temperance Mutual Benefit Association, the policy having no clause in regard to forfeiture for sucide. County Physician Hewlett's investigations showed the powders found in Van Houten's pockets were strychnine; the contents of the stomach also contained the same poison. Dr. Hewlett stated that there was nothing in the case positively indicating insanity, but from the condition of the brain, Van Houten, might not have been perfectly same. Coroner W. V. W. Vreeland began the inquest yesterday. Edward F. Van Houten, a son of the deceased man, testified that his father had complained of malarial fever and beart disease. He also testified in relation to the stabbling of his father in the yard of his house on the night of April 20. Richard J. Wardell and Joseph Harrington testified as to Van Honten's appearance before the Masonic committee. Dr. Hewlett testified that death was caused by strychnine. The inquest was then adjourned untit to-day.

Mrs. Van Houten expresses the belief that her husand was poisoned by the committee. The friends of ne decased man insist that the Coroner shall go intel

They expect to show that he had a happy home, and was in constant dread of being assassinated by Masons, who were persecuting him. They deny that he was insane or had any cause to take his life. On the other had it will be shown that Van Houten was a Spiritualist, and that some months ago he told the Rev. Dr. J. E. Forcester, who is Grand Commander of the Knights Templar of New-Screey, that a conspiracy existed to assasinate leading Masons, and that he (Forrester) was singled out for early assassination.

CALLING FOR CONTRIBUTIONS. APPEAL OF THE REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL COM-

MITTEE. Government employés in the Sub-Treasury flice yesterday received a note of which the following is a copy.

Headquarters of the Congressional Committee, Washington, D. C., May 27, 1878.

Sin: This committee, charged with laboring for the success of the Republican cause in the coming campaign for the election of members of Congress, call with confidence upon you as a Republican for such a contribution in money as you may feel willing to make, hoping that it may not be less than $20. The committee deem it proper, in thus appealing to Republicans generally, to inform those who happen to be in Federal employ that there will be no objection in any official quarter to such voluntary contribution.

The importance of the pending struggle cannot easily be exaggerated. That the Senate is to be Democratic after the 4th of March, 1879, is very nearly a certainty. In view of this, the election of a Democratic House of Representatives would precipitate upon the country dangerous agitations which would inevitably add to present distresses. Foremost among their schemes, the opposition already announce their intention to attempt the revolutionary expulsion of the President from his office.

BROOKLYN TRANSIT COMPANY'S PLANS.

The Brooklyn Steam Transit Company, acording to a statement of one of its officers yesterday has abandoned the intention of building a mile of its road before July 4, although this has seemed to be a condition of retaining its charter. This gentleman said that dition of retaining its charter. This gentleman said that the company had been regularly organized, and had engaged David Dudley Field as its counsel. Mr. Field had expressed the opinion that it would not be necessary to construct a mile within the time mentioned, but that the charter would be good until it was repealed by the Leghsture. The company was going on with its work at different points in order to see what opposition would be need. It did not consider it wise to invest a large amount of money in constructing a part of the road, and then be compelled to let it lie while the validity of its charter and other questions were being passed upon by the courts. If necessary a mile of elevated road could be built in twenty days, and it could also by a mile on the surface outside of the city in a short time, but this would not be done. The informant added that six foundation plates had been pisced in position at various points, and work was also being prosecuted in other places within the city.

TEMPERANCE LESSONS AT HOME.

A conference of temperance workers was held in the Association building, at Twenty-third-st. and Fourth-ave., yesterday afternoon, by invitation of the National Temperance Society, William E. Dodge presided. Peter Carter read an essay on "Temperance and the Children," The essay contained a long review of a new temperance lesson book, written by Dr. B. W. Richardson, of London, which is designed for use in the public schools. Dr. F. R. Leesand the Rev. Stephen Todd, of London, Dr. Willard Parker, the Rev. Dr. Sabine and Mrs. Sussuma Evans Peck, of this city, made addresses, speaking in favor of temperance instruction in the common schools as one of the most efficient means of checking the spread of intemperance. The conference passed resolutions favoring the use of temperance books in the public schools, and asking the Board of Education to consider, at its next meeting, the advisability of introducing Dr. Richardson's work. the National Temperance Society, William E. A WOMAN ON THE WOMEN'S HOTEL. MRS. MATILDA FLETCHER'S LECTURE AT BOOTH'S

THEATRE. A small audience, composed chiefly of men, assembled at Booth's Theatre last evening, to hear Mrs. Matilda Fietcher, who was expected to make some further comments on the closing of the Women's Hotel. Mrs. Fletcher was introduced by Mrs. Dr. Lozier. After pending nearly two hours in explaining her system of n.oral instruction, which is now taught in "Ethical Clubs," Mrs. Fletcher said that she was obliged to take up a subject which was distasteful to up a subject which was distasteful to her. In defence of her own honor, and the reputations of the women who had stood on the platform with her at Cooper Institute, she desired to answer some fings which had been publicly throw at her, and at the Cooper Union meeting, by the man who had perverted to selfish uses the noble aft of Alexander Stewart to the working-women of New-York. She did not mention Judge Hilton by name, but referred to him constantly by the use of the personal pronoun, which she pronounced with marked emphasis. "I am sorry to couple my name with his," she said, "even to denounce him. I was prevailed upon to tell some of my experiences at the Women's Hotel. I wish now that I had told all about it." [Laughter, I Mrs. Fletcher then spoke of the remarks which Judge Hilton had been reported to have uttered, regarding berself and other ladies who had boarded at the Women's Hotel. "He did say that there was one woman at the hotel who was so disorderly as to put offher slippers in the library. I say that was me. [Applanse.] lie also said that another woman insisted on taking a gentleman to her room. That is a fabshood, as I believe." Mrs. Fletcher then read extracts from The TRIBUNE and The Evening Post, published before and immediately after Mr. Stewart's death, in which reference was made to the building on Fourti-ave, as being intended for a home for poor working women. In defence of her own honor, and the reputations of the liected a large number of steamboats and yachts, crowded with spectators, off Stapleton, yesterday morning. Until between 10 and 11 o'clock, a fresh wind biew from the northwest, but it died away to nearly a colon. Thirteen yachts entered for the race. Lester Wallack's yacht Columbia, the Dreadnaught, Prospero, Tempest, and several other yachts were prepared to sail around the course. The judge's steamer, the Wilhiam Fletcher, towed several of the competing yachts into position, and at 11:51 the signal to start was given. The Rambier, under full plain sail, being close to the line, went across at 11:55, and seiting her jib-topsail, staysails, and balloon-jib, started off first in the race, followed by the Regina, Nettle, Restless, Estelle, Nereld, Peerless, Active, Christine, Vixen, Vision, Tidal Wave, and Citytie. ing. The course was from the starting-point, off Stapleton, to and around Southwest Spit buoy, thence to and around the Sandy Hook Lighthouse and return. One prize was offered for the winner in each class, besides two Bennett challenge prizes, one for the schooners and one for the sloops, without classification, and with time allowance. The yachts did little more than drift down to the Spit buoy with the cbb tide. At times a little flav of wind would increase their speed, and before reaching the Hospital Ship the Peerless worked to the windwar and had passed all the other schooners, the Tidal Way of wind would increase their speed, and before reaching the Hospital Ship the Peerless worked to the windward and had passed all the other schoners, the Tidal Wave being second, and the Kambier next, the Regina still keeping the lead which she took at Fort Wadsworth. The double-boat Nereld held her own with the others. The Regina was the first boat to round the Southwest Spit at 2:04:45, followed by the Peerless at 2:27:40, and the Vixen. Tidal Wave, Active, Vision, Clytte. Nettie, Restless, Estelle, Nercid, Christine and Rambler fellowing in order. After passing the Spit, they had a light northwest wind and met the full force of the flood tide, when all except the Regina, Vixen and Peerless collected in a bunch. At 4:50, It being certain that the yachtscould not make the race within the prescribed time of eight hours, the judges ordered the race to be discontinued, and the contest will be renewed to-day. The Regina at this time was two miles beyond the Hook, and reading the other yachts a mile. The other yachts were strang along in the following order: Vixen, Christine, Peerless, Active, Vision, Tidal Wave, Nered, Clytte, Estelle, Nette, Restless, and Rambler. Just at this time a heavy squall was seen coming up, when all except the plain sail was taken in. The yachts laid over with their rails under water. Nowithstanding the expedition with which sail was shortened, the Tidal Wave was seen to go over on her begin ends, and it was a full minute before she righted, her fore-sail having been taken in in the meantime. The Rambler, Estelle, Clytte, and Nettle kept on around the course, but had not returned to the anchorage at 8 o'clock; consequently the race was declared off. THE UPPER HUDSON REGATTA TROY, N. Y., June 13 .- The Spring Meeting of the Upper Hudson Regatta Association closed to-day.

of the Upper Hudson Regatta Association closed to-day. The swift current in the river, occasioned by the recent freshet, rendered the time made in the different events remarkably fast; to fact, nuch faster than the contestants are capable of rowing. It is clearly absurd to compare the performances of the contestants of yesterday and to-day, with those of the crack oarsmen of the country. Boning men estimate the course to be from 200 to 300 feet short.

To-day's races were opened with the final heat of fours between the Sangertles and the Olympics, of Albany. The former maintained the lead for the first mile, pulling a powerful stroke. At this point the Albanians made a spurt, passed the leaders, and won the race. Time, Sm. 34 sec., Sm. 64 sec.

The next race, Sentor single sculls, was contested by Higgins, of the Cohoes Club: Williams, of the Atalanta Club; Davey, of the Mutual Club; and Tompkins, of the Olympic Club. Higgins won in 9m. 454 sec.; Davey second, in 10m.; and Williams third, in 10m. 30 sec.

The double-scull race came next. The contestants were the Mutual, Olympics, and Ulysses. The Mutuals won in 9m. 204 sec.; Ulysses second, in 9m. 264 sec.; and the Olympic third, in 9m. 264 sec.; and the Olympics third, in 9m. 264 sec.

HARMONY IN THE UNION LEAGUE.

THE SOCIAL DIFFICULTY AT AN END. A NEW BY-LAW INTRODUCED AND THE ROLLINS-

DAVENPORT TICKET ELECTED AT LAST. At the meeting of the Union League Club, held last evening, the social question that has agitated the club for so long was finally settled. It will be remembered that the Brokaw Brothers, dealers in clothing at Astor-place and Fourth-ave., and Charles Waite, of the Windsor Hotel, were blackballed some time ago, and consequently some of the younger members of the club, who had not favored those gentlemen, were accused of snobbishness by the disappointed friends of the ticket. At the pext meeting of the club, some friends of the younger members were in return blackballed by the "Liberal" party. This lead to an investigation which went very far behind the returns, and nearly resulted in the expulsion of some of the friends of Messrs. Waite and Brokaw.

Finally the "Liberal" party, or as it is sometimes. Called, the Rolline-Davemport party, proposed to change the by-law regulating the election. By the old rule the vote of one-tenth of the members prosent at any meeting would defeat the election of any candidate. It was moved a month ago to change the one-tenth to one-half. That motion was laid on the table, but last evening, after the resolutions touching the death of Mr. Bryant had been copied, it was taken up for discussion. Jackson S. Schultz made a speech which, it is said, was not as personal as had been expected. It had been found that while the "one-half" measure was stremously opposed by the younger members of the club, they were willing to compromise upon "one-third." So Mr. Schultz moved to amend the by-law in that way.

Eliwood E. Thorne seconded the motion, and Salem H. Wales and Sinclair Tousey spoke in favor of it. Amid harmony and peace, finally, the by-law was adopted, and thus, by the rules of the club, a vote of two-thirds of the members present at any meeting is required to black-ball any name proposed.

The old ticket, previously defeated, was then re-proposed. It had been reconsidered by the executive committee, and re-reported favorably by them. It was evident it was going to win this time, and it did win. The exact vote could not be ascertained last evening, but the secretary declared that there was "really no opposition."

THE WABASH SUIT. THE ARGUMENT ON THE MOTION FOR THE AP-POINTMENT OF A RECRIVER CONTINUED. IBY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.

CHICAGO, June 13,-The hearing of the motion for the appointment of a receiver of the Wabash Railway was continued to-day before Judge Harlan. Ex-Judge Williams concluded his argument Harian. Ex-Judge Williams concluded his argument for the motion and was followed by Judge Green and General Swayne for the company. Judge Green caid that the funding scheme had been rendered necessary in order to save the junior claimants, and from fear that the first mortgage bondholders would take the property from the purchasers at the foreclosure sale before they had been paid their claims, and he insisted that no de-ception had been practiced green the bondholders and parchasers at the foreclosure sale before they and been paid their claims, and he insisted that no deception had been practiced upon the bondholders and that the plaintiff's had never objected till this suit was brought, At the same time he conceded that the mijority cannot control, but that the minority may properly ask a foreclosure, but not a receiver. He summed up by saying that, as the market value of the bonds is greater now than it would have been had there been no funding scheme, the plaintiffs could not object to it.

General Swayne followed, and said that, while it was not contended that the company could not centrol the revenues, and do as they wished with them until a receiver is appointed, this is not a case for the appointment of one, and that the Company had used the revenues to pay any notes or anything else as long as they were in possession. General Swayne laid great stress upon the fact that only about one per stress upon the fact that only about one per cent of the bondholders had asked for a receiver, but when he cited authorities to show that the court will then probably take the papers. It may be several days before a decision is given.

ERIE'S THIRD RAIL. THE WORK ORDERED TO BE COMPLETED AT ONCE.

The directors of the New-York, Lake Erie and Western Railroad yesterday adopted a resolution to lay a third rail from Waverly to Jersey Cits, a distance of 256 miles. The Executive Committee was instructed of 256 miles. The Executive Committee was instructed to act with the General Superintendent in having the work carried on, and to arrange also for the purchase of the necessary equipment for narrow gauge service. The line from Waverly west to Buffalo, and portions of the road between Waverly and Jersey Citygare already supplied with a third rail, so that only about 200 miles of new rails are necessary to furnish a full narrow gauge road between New-York and Buffalo. The directors also passed a resolution urging that the utmost economy be observed compatible with the best interests of the complexes and a lower scale of salaries. It is understood that important changes in the policy of the company are in contemplation, which will be embodied in the new by-laws and rules of government. Bids were opened yesterday for Bessamer steel rails for the proposed improvement of the line, which average $44.75 per ton.

FREIGHT RATES FROM THE WEST. To the Editor of The Tribune.

SIR: The report of the meeting of the managers of railroads held at the Windsor Hotel yesterday, agers of rainfoads hear at the windsor frotel yesterday, as it appears in the papers this morning, fails to give an accurate statement of the reason why it dissolved withaccurate statement of the reason why it dissolved without action in regard to rates from the West to the seaboard, and in regard to the division of business in order to secure a maintenance of such rates. The true reason was the position taken by Mr. Newell, of the Lake Shore Road, and by Mr. Ledyard, of the Michigan Central Road. They declared that they would not be governed by any resolve of the meeting in regard to rates from Chicago. Mr. Newell announced that he should fix his rates from time to time according as, in his judgment, the interest of his road prompted. After this it would have been simple nonsense for the meeting to take action upon the subject.
